

Kekoolani Family
Genealogy No. 2

The Second Chiefly Lineage of Lillian Kaeo Kanakaole Kekoolani and her Great Grandchildren

98 Generations

This genealogy is similar to Genealogy No. 1, The First Chiefly Genealogy of Lillian Kanakaole Kaeo Kekoolani. It is the same up to generation 67. There it branches off and follows the lineage of the Maui high chiefs and kings, until rejoining Genealogy No. 1 at Generation 89 (Makakkauaii). The generations in our genealogies are calculated at 25 years each.

This is a Maui and Big Island genealogy so in the time before Wakea and Papa, the generations are given as they appear in the Kumulipo Chant, the most esteemed genealogy in the eyes of these chiefs.

Upon the death of Isaac Davis, his three children were adopted into the family of Issac Davis' friend John Young. They were not technically "hanai" since they were not given as gifts, "Nāu ke keiki, kukaē ka nā'au", during infancy to John Young. Nonetheless, the children were raised as members of the Young family, as recorded in The Birthdays of the John Young Family (Bishop Museum, Genealogy Manuscript Collection, G.1.6). We include this family listing in our genealogy out of respect to John Young, who provided a family for our ancestress, the alii wahine Sarah Kaniaulono Davis, first born (hiapo) of Isaac Davis.
